

Ali's Waltz

Beth Orton

Right now
It's feels like forever, can't wait
Right now
It's looks like tomorrow, too late
To meet those expectations
Ones that have never unknown

Right now
It's high not to fall out of place
You make me wrong
Have I fallen from grace
What you do for yourself
You expect to someone else

I heard that love is a verb

Right now
It seems quite cold hearted
But how did my grieving
Before we parted
The ground where we lay
And hope to my heart you could stay

Right now
It's high not to fall out of place
If I'm wrong
Have i fallen from grace
What I do to myself
I expect to someone else

I heard that love is a verb

Right now
It feels like tomorrow, can't wait
Right now
It looks like forever, too late
To meet our expectations
Ones that we never unknown
