I hear a voice calling out
I hear a voice in this wilderness
Where darkness has reigned for so long
Ground is being taken

The trumpet sounds
And Your glory touches the ground
And we all stand in awe
Who is this?
This glory far beyond us
I hear a voice!

I hear a drum beating heaven's drawing near The sky will open Your people are being healed

I hear a drum beating heaven's drawing near The sky will open Your people are being healed I hear a voice

Heaven's battle cry
Rise!
See the sun light what was hidden
Heaven's heart beat
See is moving
What was a whisper is now
A voice calling out!

I see a generation rising up No longer accepting lies Running to the battlefield And losing their lives

I see a generation rising up
No longer accepting lies
As a band of worshipers run to the battlefield
They're finding their lives
They're finding their lives
I hear a voice!

Heaven's battle cry
Rise!
See the sun light what was hidden
Heaven's heart beat
See is moving
What was a whisper is now
A voice calling out
