

The human soul can be filled with regret
We never forget
Where we've gone wrong
Almighty God stands ready to forgive
All of our offense in crimson blood

It is so beautiful
It's so beautiful
I feast my eyes at how You satisfy
My soul

With my first breath I drew in depravity
Needing Your mercy
Even in my first hour
I'm proof the cross is as able today
As when the Lamb was slain on the altar of God

It is so beautiful
It's so beautiful
I feast my eyes at how You satisfy
My soul

Yeah
My soul

I do believe there is something going on
Where I cannot see
Deep in my soul
I feel the impact of the Mighty wind
Don't know where it comes from
But I know where it's taking me

And it's so beautiful
It's so beautiful
I feast my eyes at how You satisfy
It is so beautiful
So beautiful
I feast my eyes at how You satisfy
My soul
