

Devil Archerist

Bethany Joy Lenz

This day probably tore me apart
And I didn't even know it
This day probably ate up my heart
And I got nothing to show for it
Why, why is it so, so, so easy to compromise

This fog is like strawberry pie
But it keeps you keep on reaching
Here I am just watching me die
Just uh watching death that uh coming up
Coming up creeping
Why, why don't you start
Calling me ungrateful
Oh yeah?

Keep me away
I've got no will to fight
Keep me away
I'm running to the light
Cuz I don't wanna lose your way
With these devil, devil archerist

My soul here a million to one
Says I didn't even see it
Looking up looking down at my soul
Looking everywhere but don't know
Where the help is come, coming from
Why, why do I seem broken stumbling
Everytime I can hear

Keep me away
I've got no will to fight
Keep me away
I'm running to the light
Cuz I don't wanna lose your way
With these devil, devil archerist

Come on now
Keep me away
I've got no will to fight
Keep me away
I'm running to the light

Keep me away
I've got no will to fight
Keep me away
I'm running to the light

Cuz I don't wanna lose your way
Ha, I don't wanna lose your way
No, I don't wanna lose your way

With these devil, devil, devil archerist
