Start It Up

Bethany Joy Lenz

We arrived on sinking ships in moonlight
Both set sail for the other side of the world
We arrived on sinking ships in moonlight
There wasn't any hope of land at all
Crossing all the waves of good intention
Finding we could make a way to row
And when we spotted land in opposite directions
Where do we go

We gotta start it up
We've been waiting for so long
We gotta start it up
Baby let's build this one to last
Start it up
We can't wait too long
We gotta start it up

I clung on to bits of board
And you dear
Happy to be in your arms again
We were afraid
But we were brave enough to
And day by day
We build a way to stay in love

Crossing all the waves of good intention
Finding it's just hard enough to row
And now we're seeing land in opposite directions
When do we go
Where do we go

We gotta start it up
We've been waiting for so long
We gotta start it up
Baby let's build this one to last
Start it up
We can't wait too long
We gotta start it up

Onward now we pass on occasion
All your fear on clear enough display
You blame me
And I blame Peter Pan and
What's the use in blaming any way

We gotta start it up
We've been waiting for so long
We gotta start it up
Baby let's build this one to last
Start it up
We can't wait too long
We gotta start it up

Gotta start it up
We gotta start it up
Gotta start it up
We gotta start it up
