

I'll Be Everything

Bethel Music

When you're underwater, don't know up from down
You don't need to fight it, just surrender now
I know your heart is aching, you feel in the dark
You are not alone, I know where you are

And lay your burdens down, lay it all on Me
Rest your weary head and I'll be all you need
I'll be everything, everything, yeah
I'll be everything, everything, yeah
I'll be everything, everything, yeah
Ooh-ooh

You are rising up to the surface now
You will get through this, I will show you how
Now your mind is clearing and your heart is strong
I am taking you to where you belong

And lay your burdens down, lay it all on Me
Rest your weary head and I'll be all you need
I'll be everything, everything, yeah
I'll be everything, everything, yeah
I'll be everything, everything, yeah

I'm still speaking in the silence
I'm still moving though at times you cannot see
When you've got questions more than answers
You will find me right here in the mystery
I'll be everything, I'll be everything

And lay your burdens down, lay it all on Me
Rest your weary head and I'll be all you need
I'll be everything, everything
