

The Great Beyond

Bethel Music

In the silence, in the still, in the mystery revealed
You're the anchor I will cling to
Holy Spirit lead me on, You're the peace that overcomes
Take heart, have courage

I lift my eyes up to the heavens
I know Your love will break through
I fix my eyes on the horizon
I know Your love will break through

You're the whisper on the wind, a true and constant friend
Full of hope and quiet confidence
You're the voice that never sleeps, always singing over me
Take heart, have courage
Take heart, have courage

I lift my eyes up to the heavens
I know Your love will break through
I fix my eyes on the horizon
I know Your love will break through

I'm resting in the great beyond
What we know and what will come
'Cause You are a world without an end

And even in the great unknown
We have a hope, we have a home
'Cause You are a world without an end

I'm resting in the great beyond
What we know and what will come
'Cause You are a world without an end

And even in the great unknown
We have a hope, we have a home
'Cause You are a world without an end
Oh God, You are a world without an end

I lift my eyes up to the heavens
I know Your love will break through (Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh)
I fix my eyes on the horizon
I know Your love will break through (Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh, oh)

I lift my eyes up to the heavens
I know Your love will break through
I fix my eyes on the horizon
I know Your love will break through (You're breaking through)

Even when my heart is breaking
Even when my strength is failing
I know Your love will break through
And even in the darkest night
Even when I've lost the fight
I know Your love will break through
