

Again

Beto Vázquez Infinity

Again, I am willing to carry on
I won't let fate seal my way
Although I suffer losses in my life
I must be strong, and carry on for those I love

I need to resist and control my pain
I'll have to if there is tomorrow must think about the future that comes
When time passes by, I 'll be a wiser man

I wish to find someone to help me now
Sometimes I feel a great void in my life
At nights, my past comes back to my mind
Will my fate give me a chance to survive?

I'm eager to start living up
The new story in this chapter of my life
I know I have many people by my side
Who wish I overcome, all my fears.

I won't forget about my yesterday
Keeping memories from old times
That taught me feelings, and lessons
She gave me all her love till the end of her days.
