

Danjorland

Beto Vázquez Infinity

In the lands of Danjorland Desires are magic
And the energy becomes matter.

In a place where the sky shines
And the hills show their landscapes
Big towns united
To guarantee the future.

Danjorland, your blue lakes,
they reflect pureness;
Stars, in times
Of time and space
Make your dreams come true.

To be there, to look and run through your green hills can only be compared With peace never achieved.

Danjorland, you can exist
Inside of me or within the one who has good feelings
Since the barbarians will never find you.
