

Low Expectations

betrayal

I never knew that this could be so hard. Always in the dark, wondering.

Who the fuck have i become. I always thought that I would know myself.

Always in the dark. Becoming what I never knew. Who the fuck have I become?

I'm never coming, always going and expecting the worst.

Expect the worst. Who the fuck have I become?

I'm the exact person I hate. My words are venom. It's killing me from the inside out.

Who the fuck have I become?

I'm never coming, always going, i expect the worst. Always in the dark.

I hope I see that light again.

Who the fuck have I become?

What the fuck have i become?

Condemned, imprisoned in, in my own head.

I'm always, kicked down and dragged out by my own hand.

No one should ever live this way.

Who the fuck have i become? Become.

On one should ever live this way, never coming always going.

Who the fuck have I become.

Expect the worst.
