

Monster

Betraying the Martyrs

I'm a fucking monster!

My blood is boiling but I'm loving the pain
Bathing in the hatred with a grin on my face
This is who I am, don't ever ask me to change
I couldn't if I tried so let me be, let me be me

I can't fake it
This is who I've always been
I'll never ever change
'Cause I'm a fucking monster!

As it rises I embrace the chills
From my spine into my fingertips
The voices start running through my head
They're telling me to, let out the monster!

Back up
Temperature is rising and my teeth start to grind
Someone stop me!
Embrace the hate

I'm over trying to hide
This is who I am
I'm over trying to hide
This is who I am, this is who I am
Just a fucking monster!

I'm not afraid to embrace the pain nor the hate
This is who I am, it's who I am!
Please, don't try to save me
Let me slip, slip away

I can't fake it
This is who I've always been
I'm never, ever, ever gonna change!

Voices, they're in my head
Voices, they live and breathe
Don't you try to save me, this is me
