

Is There Anyone Out There?

Betta Lemme

I'm floating past my life
The days go on and on
And even when I'm home
Can't help but feel alone

I've got a secret
Nobody knows
I've got a calling
It comes and it goes
When will I share it?
When will I know?
Is somebody out there
To tell me "hello"?

Is there anyone out there? Ooh...
Is there anyone out there? Ooh...

My window shares my pain
It sparkles when it rains
And sometimes when cry
It says I'll be okay

I've got a secret
Nobody knows
I've got a calling
It comes and it goes
When will I share it?
When will I know?
Is somebody out there
To tell me "hello"?

Is there anyone out there? Ooh...
Is there anyone out there? Ooh...

You put the ex in existential
I broke my heart on your potential
Still don't believe it was accidental
Somebody give me a sign

Is there anyone out there? Ooh...
Is there anyone out there? Ooh...
Is there anyone out there? Ooh...
Is there anyone out there? Ooh...

Is there anyone out there?
