I'll Not Resist

Better Than a Thousand

Planet of cruetly, competition, and pride
When the dog feels threatened it's his nature to bite
Are they arrogant, envious, or just insecure?
They're praying like anything that I won't endure
I know where I'm standing, and I know I'll stand firm
Armed with my principles and all that I've learned
Hatred breeds hatred, if the barrage won't desist
I'll be the stronger man because I'll not resist
YES I CAN TAKE IT
You make your fist
YES I CAN TAKE IT
I'll not resist

And as a lotus unaffected by the mud from where it grows
I will stand protected despite all the shit that's thrown
I see you live to conquer, I live to co-exist
And now you know my spirit and I will not resist

YES I CAN TAKE IT
You make your fist
YES I CAN TAKE IT
I'll not resist
