

Giving Me Away

Betty Who

It feels all the same to you
When I fall asleep next to you
I've been waiting to hear you breathe
'Cause without it I can't sleep

With your hands all through my hair
You're holding onto all the air
Judging from how we've been
You should kiss me like you mean it again
'Cause I don't wanna be your friend

Call me pretty young thing
Make me weak until I'm speechless
Falling into you

Here like madness, she can't hide it
Counting right beside you
Giving me away
Giving me away

Did you know that when you laugh
It tears my heart in half
When I feel you look my way
I keep feeling you all day

God gave me with this just one hand
But he gave to you with all he had
And when our feet are intertwined
I feel your blood in mine, feed those veins
Oh, how I want you to stay

Call me pretty young thing
Make me weak until I'm speechless
Falling into you

Here like madness, she can't hide it
Counting right beside you
Giving me away
Giving me away

What was I supposed to do?
Laying in life when next to you
What am I supposed to do
With you, with you?

Call me pretty young thing
Make me weak until I'm speechless
Falling into you

Here like madness, she can't hide it
Counting right beside you
Giving me away
Giving me away
