

You Can Cry Tomorrow

Betty Who

It's 5 PM, you're still in bed
Get outta your head
This isn't the end
You took a hit
Let's burn his shit
Get off of the ledge
It's time to pretend

I bought a bottle of Moscato
You'll be drunk until tomorrow
Girl, I know you're broken-hearted
Rip it out and we'll restart it

I got you right now
I'm holding you down
You'll never be alone
Never on your own
I know, it's been hard
To fight the worst part
So dance with me tonight
Baby, you can cry tomorrow
Tomorrow

It's 5 AM, I'm already spent
Keepin' it cool (hey)
You're looking brand new
Beauty queen
But can't you see
They're looking at you
A beautiful view

Honey, they just hit the lotto
'Cause you're back out on the prowl
Girl, I know you're broken-hearted
Rip it out and we'll restart it

I got you right now
I'm holding you down
You'll never be alone
Never on your own
I know, it's been hard
To fight the worst part
So dance with me tonight
Baby, you can cry tomorrow
Tomorrow
Baby, you can cry tomorrow
Tomorrow
Baby, you can cry

If it gets heavy (heavy)
I'll be ready (ready)
You'll never feel lonely again (never feel lonely)
'Cause if you feel it (I feel it)
There's a reason (a reason)
And we all need some help now and then
(Now and then, yeah)

I got you right now
I'm holding you down

I got you right now
I'm holding you down
You'll never be alone
Never on your own
I know, it's been hard
To fight the worst part
So dance with me tonight
Baby, you can cry tomorrow (tomorrow, tomorrow)
Tomorrow (tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow)
Baby, you can cry tomorrow (tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow)
Tomorrow (tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow)
