

Fit For A King

Betty Wright

Ow, oh, oh, oh, ooh-oooh
Mmm

I'm what you need in your life
Our love personify
I was sent here to console you
Comfort to help, not control you
You got some insecurity
And makes you doubt my loyalty
Don't make our love a competition
Open your eyes and see the vision

I am fit for a king, fit for a king
I am your queen (said I am)
I am your queen
Oh, I'm fit for a king
Let me be
(I am your queen)

Don't have to go get too loud
Cause me no drama
I wanna hear you talk sweet to me
Like when you talk to your mama
My daddy never mistreated me
He was kind and strong a man totally
One thing I know about happiness
Is it takes a patient heart and forgetfulness

I, I, I'm fit for a king
Say what, say what, say what
You know that
I, I, I'm fit for a king
(I am your queen)
Treat me like your queen

I was shaped and formed
Molded for your love
Only your love
(This is true, this is true)
A reflection of your protection-na
Is pure love
To reach perfection

(I'm) I'm, fit for a king
I'm a queen, I'm a queen, I'm yo queen, I'm yo queen
Baby, I, I'm
Baby, I'm fit for a king
And I am your queen, I am your queen
(I am fit for a king, for a king)

Open your eyes and see me
Can you see me?
Can you feel me baby?
Need to learn how to treat your baby
Need to know how to treat your lady
I'm a reflection of your protection
And don't you forget that

Listen to what I'm saying, brotha
Love me like you love your mother
Treat me like you treat yo mother, haha

No, you don't talk back to her
You don't talk that smack to her
'Cause you know she'll knock you out
Better still she'll lock you out, ha
So, I, I'm, fit for a king
I am your queen

Don't you sit shining on my throne
Baby, baby
