

Quiet Storm

Betty Wright

Your love is a quiet storm
And I love when it's ragin'
Your love is a quiet storm
And I love, and I love, and I love when it's ragin'

Yes you're shy, you're not a talkative guy
But I know just what you feel (said I know what you feel)
Cuz what you don't say, I hear anyway
Body language is the real deal

And when we're alone, ah, at home
The half ain't never been told
You take your time, you don't rush
And your gentle touch
Sets a fire in my soul

Your love is a quiet storm
And I love when it's ragin'
Your love is a quiet storm
And I love, and I love, and I love when it's ragin'

Quiet people are often misunderstood
Some take their meekness for weakness
But you've got special appeal
You give me such a thrill
Who cares if you speak less?

People looking from the outside they Never seem to see
That that quiet man
With one touch of his hand
Can bring the beast out in me
In me

Your love is a quiet storm
And I love when it's ragin', ragin'
Your love is a quiet storm
And I love, and I love, and I love when it's ragin'
When it's ragin', when it's ragin'

These quiet men they just seem to ring my bell
You know girls prefer quiet men cuz they don't kiss and tell
And maybe I love quiet men cuz I love to talk
And if he's a good listener
Mmm, he'll get all kinds of things outta me like
I could mow his lawn, I'll wash his car whatever he wants
He got it

Your love is a quiet storm
And I love when it's ragin'
Your love is a quiet storm
And I love, and I love, and I love when it's ragin'

Quiet or not, baby whatever you got
You get the best out of me, yeah
I like what you does
And before this song is through I wanna be

Making sweet love to you

Your love is a quiet storm
And I love when it's ragin'
Your love is a quiet storm
And I love, when it's ragin'
