

I'm Tired

Bettye Lavette

I'm tired of being a fool My mind going from hot to cool

Trying to come on to all the people's ideas and somebody else's rules

2. The life I'm living ain't mine I'm suppose to think that's fine

I didn't make this world I'm living in but I ain't going to toe the line

3. I'm tired of trying to be something I know ain't me

I'm tired of living up to what others expect of me.

I know some people are different now ain't that a crying shame

Wouldn't it be a tragedy if we were all the same

I ain't gonna try to please Eyes that just can't see

If I ever get myself back together again

You'll have the blues not me lead keys Repeat 3 You'll have the blues not me
