

Friends

BETWEEN FRIENDS

Go to sleep, not a peep
I've been working all the time
Like every week, dirt cheap
But I like when you're with me

Nose bleed, broken teeth
I could walk forever with you
In between, going clean
'Cause I like when you're with me

But I'm starting to think that we're friends
Every time that you're near me
My whole life begins and ends and
I really think that we could be friends
If you promise tomorrow I'll see you again

Oh no, looking through your photos
Throwing out my phone so I don't crash into a home off the interstate
Oh no, now I'm getting FOMO
Throwing out my phone so I don't crash into a home off the interstate

But I'm starting to think that we're friends
Every time that you're near me
My whole life begins and ends and
I really think that we could be friends
If you promise tomorrow I'll see you again

I'm not picky, yes I'm not sorry
You could be the one, yeah probably
I'm not picky, yes I'm not sorry
You could be the one, yeah probably
I'm not picky, yes I'm not sorry
You could be the one, yeah probably
I'm not picky, yes I'm not sorry
You could be the one, yeah probably

Well I'm starting to think that we're friends
Every time that you're near me
My whole life begins and ends and
I really think that we could be friends
If you promise tomorrow I'll see you again
