

Got a couple bags
Gonna go away and stay there for a while
The cars don't go as fast
Now I'm older like I capped the speed dial
Took a wind blow like a facelift
Kept a tight lace running through your braces

Crashed the rental, lost my mental
Swimming in the moonlight
Hopefully, we're alright

Oh, lights flashing and I'm gushing every time
But it's you that's on my mind
And you can tell I really wanna stay but I can't sit still
And you can tell I really wanna stay but I can't sit still

Got a couple jobs but I'm making all my money on the side
Lifted on sobriety, a solo hit wonder on the ride
Took a nice dip to the pavement
Lay my head down staring into spaces

Crashed the rental, lost my mental
Swimming in the moonlight
Hopefully, we're alright

Oh, lights flashing and I'm gushing every time
But it's you that's on my mind
And you can tell I really wanna stay but I can't sit still
And you can tell I really wanna stay but I can't sit still
