BETWEEN FRIENDS

Staring at the ceiling
Starting to think you'll never leave
And I can't relate to Anything you say to me

Cause my head is aching
I don't want your conversations
You can't say
Didn't mean to
Get into this situation
I can't seem to get away
My head aches

Real talk is so hard
Why you talking so much
Why you talking so much
Why you talking so much
Real talk is so hard
Why you talking so much
Why you talking so much
Why you talking so much

Never said my name but you seem to remember me
Cellophane your t-shirt
Now your breathing heavily

Cause my head is aching
I don't want your conversations
You can't say
Didn't mean to
Get into this situation
I can't seem to get away
My head aches

Real talk is so hard
Why you talking so much
Why you talking so much
Why you talking so much
Real talk is so hard
Why you talking so much
Why you talking so much
Why you talking so much
