

You Give Me Hope

Between the Trees

I look at your smiling face
Your so weak and yet you have such strength
You take a glance around this place
And you make the best of everything

You give me hope in spite of everything
You show me love even with so much pain
So I'll take this life,
And live like I was given another try.

We laugh, we cry
Sometimes we're broken and we don't know why
I'm tired and I loose my way
You help me find faith again.

You give me hope in spite of everything
You show me love even with so much pain
So I'll take this life,
And live like I was given another try
Just give me another try.

You give me hope in spite of everything
You show me love even with so much pain
So I'll take this life,
And live like I was given another try

You give me hope in spite of everything
You show me love even with so much pain
So I'll take this life,
And live like I was given another try
Just give me another try
Just give me another try
