

Butterflies

Between You & Me

She's a pretender, a beautiful disguise.
Looks so confident, but doesn't realize that she's a keeper.
I can't get her off my mind!
Let's catch an Uber as we ramble on about our lives.

Spent nights, lost in my head.
Girl, I want to see you but I'll settle for text.
I meant what I said; thinking about it over again.

Tell me, tell me what you're thinking about.
How the hell did we wind up back here again?
Tell me, tell me what you're all about.
How many days are left 'till I see you again?

Said she's a vegan, she tells me all the time.
I barely know her but she starts to give me butterflies.
She loves the planet and everything it hides.
She sees the good in everybody with the blue eyes.

Spent nights, lost in my head.
Girl, I want to love you but I'll settle for sex.
I want you so bad - more than just a space in my bed.

Tell me, tell me what you're thinking about.
How the hell did we wind up back here again?
Tell me, tell me what you're all about.
How many days are left 'till I see you again?

Hope you don't think I'm out of line,
But I won't leave until you're mine.
Tell me, tell me what you're all about.
How many days are left 'till I see you again?
'Till I see you again.

Hope you don't think I'm out of line.
Hope you don't think we're wasting time.

Tell me, tell me what you're thinking about.
How the hell did we wind up back here again?
Tell me, tell me what you're all about.
How many days are left 'till I see you again?

Hope you don't think I'm out of line,
But I won't leave until you're mine.
So tell me, tell me what you're thinking about.
How many days are left 'till I see you again?
