

Good Intentions

Between You & Me

All my good intentions let you down
In your absence I'm strong enough to make it
But you're not so easily complacent
With your life but I'll be gone without a trace
You won't get the chance to see me
Growing more each day for me
But I guess that I'm no good, I let you down

Tell me all the things I need to say
Tell me all the things I need to change
I miss you almost every day
I wish that I could see your face
I know that we both need our space
But maybe I'll call someday

My good intentions are fucking useless
Am I transparent, like my excuses
I recycle in delusion
I'm the trash in your pollution
I'll be fine as long as you can sleep at night
Knowing just how much I tried
But I'm sad that I won't get the time to make you feel alright

Tell me all the things I need to say
Tell me all the things I need to change
I miss you almost every day
I wish that I could see your face
I know that we both need our space
But maybe I'll call someday

(Maybe I'll call someday)

So look into these eyes and tell me we will be alright
Tell me that you'll never leave again
I know I said that I'd be fine
But you're still stuck inside my head
But you've made up your mind
Said your last goodbye
So fucking pack your bags, leave my life
I hope I never see you again
