Between You & Me

Yeah, I got a little fucked up last night
I tried to call but it declined
Still searching for the California kind of vibe

I don't care about the mansions, glitz and the glam
Yeah, maybe that's a little played out
Never mind about the fashion heads in their asses
Hollywood, you need to calm down
(I think you need to calm down)
'Cos I don't really want to waste my
I don't really want to waste my time no more
We keep the party going all night, feeling alright

Yeah, I got a little fucked up last night
I tried to call but it declined
Just trashed a Walmart parking lot ahhh nevermind
'Cos I don't want to be the punchline, not me
I want to hear my songs on MTV
Still searching for the California kind of vibe
Nevermind
(Nevermind, nevermind)
(Nevermind, nevermind)

Never mind about the bullshit
Jenny with the two kids, livin' in a brand-new house
Never mind about your cool whip
I bet you barely use it
I really ain't about that now
I graduate, get under paid and not to say that nothing's changed
Man I hate to say look at me now
But I'm the baddest mother fucker in this whole damn town

Yeah, I got a little fucked up last night
I tried to call but it declined
Just trashed a Walmart parking lot ahhh nevermind
'Cos I don't want to be the punchline, not me
I want to hear my songs on MTV
Still searching for the California kind of vibe
Nevermind
Nevermind, nevermind

Nevermind
Nevermind, nevermind
I don't really want to waste my
Don't really want to waste my

Yeah, I got a little fucked up last night
I tried to call but it declined
Still searching for the California kind of vibe
