Between You & Me

She talks about herself so well
She'd fuck the mirror if you can't tell
But baby that's fine coz she's got big plans for California
Now she's taking on the world

It's all dark blue beat up, she ain't about it
Want that all white Tesla cruisin the valley
Tell me where'd it go wrong
Oh she's back at home yeh
Still runnin up that credit card and tells the world she's livin large

I heard she wanna be an actress
Coz daddy got her on the short list
She always wanna be
Inside the magazines just so everybody sees
How she's so perfect
Maybe she's perfect coz
Girl got all she needs
Her magazines and her Insta feed
Tellin her oh she's a queen
Oh we don't care about the long run
Ask me when it's all done baby
I'll be getting drunk on Venice beach

Just to be someone they talk about
Yeah she just wants to be talked about

She wants to go her own way
She needed a change
She walkin the sunset strip all alone
I think she made a mistake
Searching for fame
What happened to all her friends?
She don't know
I don't know
