

Juniper Tree

Beverley Craven

The journey has become too much for me
Elijah was right, enough's enough
For I'm no better than my mother
Or any other human diamond in the rough

Will you lay
Down in the shade
With me

Under the Juniper tree
Juniper Tree

I used to be the rose of Sharon
A happy flower in the field
My life flew by how did that happen?
I was a lily in the valley of Jezreel

Will you lay
Down in the shade
With me

Under The Juniper Tree
Juniper Tree

I'm hoping an army of angels
Are floating up over
The stormy rain clouds above me
Under The Juniper Tree

Lay
Down in the shade
With me

Under The Juniper Tree
Juniper Tree
