

Systematic Overload

Beverley Knight

Electrostatic skyline, everything is right
In the nighttime, the nighttime
Blue hypnotic twilight, everything is good
In the nighttime, it's the right time

Purple-coloured moonbeams
Hazy through the smokescreens, ah
Systematic overload
Voyeuristic daydreams
Swimming through a heartbeat, ah

Rhythm is the life, just hear it calling
Dance until the clock stops turning time
Exploding through the windows, breaking down the walls
A systematic overload
Rhythm is the life, just hear it calling
Dance until the clock stops turning time
Exploding through the windows, breaking down the walls
A systematic overload

Liquid motion bass lines, everything is right
In the nighttime, the right time
Float against the white lines, everything is good
In the nighttime, it's the right time

Purple-coloured moonbeams
Hazy through the smokescreens, ah
Systematic overload
Voyeuristic daydreams
Swimming through a heartbeat, ah

Rhythm is the life, just hear it calling
Dance until the clock stops turning time
Exploding through the windows, breaking down the walls
A systematic overload
Rhythm is the life (just hear it calling)
Dance until the clock stops turning time
Exploding through the windows, breaking down the walls
A systematic overload

Rhythm is the life, just hear it calling
Dance until the clock stops turning time
Exploding through the windows, breaking down the walls
