

Beloved

Beware of Darkness

Slow down your heartbeat
Come close and let me hear your lungs breathe
Wrap me in your DNA
Tonight we escape

In the night, lost in love, come meet your maker, child
I am your beloved
Everything outside this room tonight is meaningless
You are my beloved
Singing I am your beloved

So hold me, I wish this night would never end
So hold me, I am your beloved
I am your beloved
You are my beloved
Until the end of time
Forever in my heart

Now I know why I was born
To lie beside next to you
Eternal life is such a bore
All I have is these mortal minutes with you

In the night, lost in love, come meet your maker, child
I am your beloved
Everything outside this room tonight is meaningless
You are my beloved
Singing I am your beloved

So hold me, I wish this night would never end
So hold me, I am your beloved
I am your beloved

So hold me, I wish this night would never end
So hold me, I am your beloved
I am your beloved
You are my beloved
Until the end of time
Forever in my heart

Up there is a jealous god
Who wants to take our life away
I think we're outpowered now
But I won't let him have his way
No, no, I won't let him have his way
No, no, I won't let him have his way
