

Beware

Beware of Darkness

I am jealous of my dead friends for leaving me among men Who do not take the time to think Death for breakfast lunch and dinner, let your body simmer Cos someone is hungry for more Tell me what did you think, when you put your hand on my heart, but did not feel a beat

Tonight, no he won't hear my prayers, no he won't hear my prayers,
no matter how loud I shout
Tonight, no he won't hear my prayers, no he won't hear my prayers,
no matter how loud I shout

I make candy out of cancer, did you think I had an answer, when you asked if I still loved you dear Sex, a way to get anything, use me baby I'm your fiend, for otherworldly love affairs

I never asked to be alive, but fuck it man, I'll get on this ride

Tonight, no he won't hear my prayers, no he won't hear my prayers,
no matter how loud I shout
Tonight, no he won't hear my prayers, no he won't hear my prayers,
no matter how loud I shout

Beware
Beware
Beware cos I will eat you up like air

I will kill myself to make a point
I dare you sugar say the word, cos I am not afraid of death

Tonight, no he won't hear my prayers, no he won't hear my prayers,
no matter how loud I shout
Tonight, no he won't hear my prayers, no he won't hear my prayers,
no matter how loud I shout

Beware
Beware
Beware cos I will eat you up like air
