Beware of Darkness

Millennials

This is not the life I wanted

But I got, but I got

Millennials

You are not the one I wanted

But I got, but I got

I'm addicted to the internet, yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm addicted to the internet, whoa, whoa

I'm addicted to the internet, yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm addicted to the internet, whoa, whoa

And I'm never gonna leave my parents' house

Till I'm pushing thirty, thirty

And I haven't had a single thought

Crossed my mind since the dollar, dollar

You are my favorite drug

I'm happy, dumb, and numb

That I'm online, online, online, online

Millennials

This is not the life I wanted

But I got, but I got

Millennials

You are not the one I wanted

But I got, but I got

I'm addicted to the internet, yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm addicted to the internet, whoa, whoa

I'm addicted to the internet, yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm addicted to the internet, whoa, whoa

Freedom is knowing that sometimes

Your biggest problem is yourself

Freedom is having the courage to change

When everyone around you stays the same

I can't stop waiting for my life

To start its journey

I look around me, where I am

And think "oh my God, it's now"
