

Tastes Like Heaven

Beware of Darkness

Move through me like honey dripping
Down the legs of the abyss
When you crack my life apart
Baby girl it feels like a kiss

You taste like heaven
Even sweeter than the real thing

All my friends, they think I'm crazy
'Cause I love to drink you up
Girl I'll worship at your altar
Till every heartbeat I have is up

You taste like heaven
Even sweeter than the real thing
You taste like heaven
Even sweeter than the real thing

You taste like heaven
Even sweeter than the real thing
You taste like heaven
Even sweeter than the real thing
