

Tell Me This Isn't Fate

Beware of Darkness

Woman, do you want to follow where the night will take us? Cos
I do Honey, every single minute of my life has led me, right here to you

Take me home

Call it fate, call it love, call it truth call it magic, cos I' m under your spell

You are the most beautiful thing I've ever seen in this whole w ide world
Tell me this isn't fate that you and I are here
The impossible's possible

Goddess, I would throw away everything in my whole life, for ju st one night with you Sweet tea, every single pore in my shivering body, is aching fo r you

Take me home

Call it fate, call it love, call it truth call it magic, cos I'
m under your spell

ide world
Tell me this isn't fate that you and I are here
The impossible's possible

Take me home

You are the most beautiful thing I've ever seen in this whole w ide world
The impossible's possible
