

Alizé Eyes

BEXEY

Okay okay
No way no way
Okay okay
No way no way
Okay okay
No way no way
Yeah

Remember when they told me be realistic
Get a real job, fall back on something
Tell a big dream to an ignorant bitch
What they gonna say?
You need to fall back on something
How about I fall back in my stance like this
You can watch her go fall back in my arms smiling
Married to karma I'm prince charming
Getting to it quicker we never divorcing

New girl she from the netherlands
She anxious thinks ill never land
Whilst I fly around like I'm in neverland
Shots of hennessy, bumping sade
My head spin like a ceiling fan
Nights like these
I really wish they would go on & on
They blow up her phone
But she playing bexey's songs
Here we go
Pre-rolled blunts up on the low
Tell people I don't smoke
Prefer smoking alone
On & off switch of amnesia
Lemme click that
Everyone that doubted me you don't exist now
Watch me go
Black escort - rs-turbo
See the grillz fall out her mouth
Yeah when I swerve through
I can tell she fascinated
Ima say my words slow
Earring brushing on the collar of my fur coat
Buttons on her shirt broke
Looking like an anime
Eyes sparkle like alizé on a summer day

Remember when they told me be realistic
Get a real job, fall back on something
Tell a big dream to an ignorant bitch
What they gonna say?
You need to fall back on something
How about I fall back in my stance like this
You can watch her go fall back in my arms smiling
Married to karma I'm prince charming
Getting to it quicker we never divorcing
