

BEVERLY HILLS HEARTACHE

BEXEY

I tried to act like this feeling weren't real
Heartache in Beverly Hills
We all need a little something that heals
I tried to act like this feeling weren't real
Heartache in Beverly Hills
We all need a little something that heals

Baby what you know about heart break?
Tears running down in the fast lane
Protection spells, yeah so they can't harm me
Keep your guard higher than the handlebars on a Harley
Keep it high, in the night
Glisten in your eye when the moonlight shine
I just wanna call you mine
Take that step and make everything right
One of a kind, I'm feeling like
You casted a spell up in my mind
Seeing you smile with you by my side
It's a hell of a sight
I cannot lie
One of a kind, I'm feeling like
You casted a spell up in my mind
Seeing you smile with you by my side
It's a hell of a sight
I cannot lie

I tried to act like this feeling weren't real
Heartache in Beverly Hills
We all need a little something that heals
I tried to act like this feeling weren't real
Heartache in Beverly Hills
We all need a little something that heals

All of your friends love to gossip
I just want to vibe to the beat
I just wanna ride through the street
Only be you and me
Watch the credits roll down, living in a movie scene
I don't want this to end
I don't wanna be just your friend
Can we be more than this
I don't wanna pretend
Like you don't give me a feeling nobody can feel
Midnight in California
I think the time stopped when I saw you
Only you can make my jaw drop
Rating out of 10 you get 12 stars
You off the chart
How could an angel be breaking these hearts
Rearranging my words because none of them work
In describing the angelic aura you got

I tried to act like this feeling weren't real
Heartache in Beverly Hills
We all need a little something that heals
I tried to act like this feeling weren't real
Heartache in Beverly Hills

We all need a little something that heals

I tried to act like this feeling weren't real
We all need a little something that heals
