

I believe we both know what I'm talkin' about
I believe we both know what I'm talkin' about
When I'm stone cold sober, I'm beyond over the limit

When I'm stone cold sober, I'm beyond over the limit
Over the limit, over the limit

When I'm stone cold sober, I'm beyond over the limit
Tears of a villain fall slow, might just flow in a minute
Ya over packed the mental baggage, don't expect you to comprehend it
Let's not complicate shit, take away the feelings
For Heavens sake, oh what the hell?
Peel away the plaster, don't let it heal
I'm the puppet master, ghost in a shell
My soul in a different world, for real
How is it we speaking the same language?
Everything ya saying lost in translation

Hold you closer than close, need my heart by ya
Watchin' over from above, I'm your gargoyle
I hate pretending I don't care just to see how you feel
Need to know if this for real, hmm

I need to know how you're feeling (How you're feeling)
Know what the deal is (Know what's the deal like)
Know how you feeling, hmm

December 2018, I broke my promise in Shinjuku
On both knees praying, so please tighten up these loose screws
Everything looking the same, like a misprint game of Guess Who Over calculating every single one of my chess moves
I don't lose the day wondering about the night time
Oh, what a waste, yeah
The price that I pay for the choices that I make
Ain't no fair exchange

Hold you closer than close, need my heart by ya
Watchin' over from above, I'm your gargoyle
I hate pretending I don't care just to see how you feel
Need to know if this for real, hmm

I need to know how you're feeling (How you're feeling)
Know what the deal is (Know what's the deal like)
Know how you feeling, hmm
