

Glorified Daze

BEXEY

I feel so alive
So alive at night time

I feel so alive
So alive at night time

I lay awake yeah
Stay away yeah
All night long on my lionel richie
Forever... treasure...
Bex stay posted around the goal like a defender
Why?
Try and interrupt get left game over
Can't follow my route
No shaw shank redemption
Peel back the poster
Closer, told you
They won't ever believe till you show them

(All) Along knew I was the one I'm chosen
But they didn't wanna hear me though
Inevitable
(All) Hours of the night in my mind
That's the palace I own
All alone

(I lay awake all night long)
(I lay awake all night long)

And if you really know me
Then you know that I be doing
What I'm put here to do
Put together some feathers and flew
They was always here
So near, maybe I just wasn't ready for the view
Ooh, who? who I am I? who are you?
I apologise if I appear to be rude
Cause I mean the opposite
Show everybody my respect
Find it hard to trust again
Trust the universe instead

Everything comes back around okay-ay
Up early stay awake so lay-ate
They speak when I ain't present
I smile up in they face
I step like I'm in heaven in a glorified daze

Everything comes back around okay-ay
Up early stay awake so lay-ate
They talk but never listen
Then wonder why nothings changed
I sense the frustration dimensions away

Its like
How can you be mad at me for Doing what I'm put here to do

Really?

If you want me to stop this you have to kill me
Literally. shoot me. stab me. poison my food
Do what you have to do man
Because even after that
Its still eternal
Its still forever
So erm, good luck, my friend
