

IDK (I DECAY)

BEXEY

You were the one

I thought you were the one
Can't do nothing wrong
Comparing you to the only girl I loved
I watch the way you move
The little things you do
And I'm the missing puzzle piece
That fits into you (ooo)
Baby I think I like where this is heading to IDK what to say to you
I check the time and it's 22:22
Guess you are an angel of some kind
VVS halo in the sunlight
My devil horns aimed at your sunshine
We can pause the day and just unwind

Say what you wanna say
And I'll know
Leave if you wanna leave
And I'll go
Be who you wanna be
And I'll do
The same thing, the same thing

Say what you wanna say
And I'll know
Leave if you wanna leave
And I'll go
Be who you wanna be
And I'll do
The same thing, the same thing

So we let the day continue
Jaw aching, I'm smiling when I'm with you
Look what we're into
I'd love to kiss you
When I'm beside you, baby I miss you
I need you more than ever
You're the Burberry umbrella in stormy weather
You hold it all together
Yes I adore my treasure
Love too much, that is too tall to measure
Saying the same words at the same time
My fingers on vacation at your waistline
I love the way that you don't have a fake smile
I love it so much that I hate mine
We walking through the city, of course you're with me
I check your phone to see if the time is 13:33
And I see a text on your phone saying
'I'll love you til' the end'
That number was my best friend

Say what you wanna say
And I'll know
And I'll go

Be who you wanna be
And I'll do

Say what you wanna say
And I'll know
And I'll go
Be who you wanna be
And I'll do
The same thing, the same thing

TBH IDK what I wanna say to you
I just wanna lay with you
Baby I don't got no time to play with you
Don't got time, so don't be wasting mine
Let's enjoy the night
This just feels so right
So baby what you really tryna' do?
I'm tryna' make you my boo
One plus one is two
Let's unwind baby
Let's just take our time
Look into my eyes
And tell me you're all mine

Say what you wanna say
And I'll know
And I'll go
Be who you wanna be
And I'll do

Say what you wanna say
And I'll know
And I'll go
Be who you wanna be
And I'll do
The same thing, the same thing

You don't love someone for their looks
Or their clothes, or their fancy car
Because they sing a song only you can hear
Let's end it on that note
