

If You Say So

BEXEY

If you say so
Oh no way

If you say so
Oh no way

You wanna get with me
I wanna get with you
Ignored phone calls
Hotel room
Half past 2, 1st class view
Because your body looks like its drawn like a cartoon
Yes you
I don't know
Overflowing with love I don't ever show
Maybe just a little bit when I'm in the zone
Fuckin you slow
And then I take it back
I get easily attached
That's mine
Label me narcissistic alright
Rather call it realistic because I
Ain't letting no poisonous bitches in my mind
Writing these rhymes
On your bra that your ripped off
Keep my phone switched off

(If you say so)

Yeah the screen black
Like your lipstick that smudged
After I fucked your mouth
I don't give a fuck about...

If you say so
If you say so
(If you say so, oh woa woa woa)
(If you say so, if you say say say say so whoa whoa)

Girl from los angeles
You fuckin up my energy
Don't need you laying next to me
I love the spanish you speak
You love my accent and we Could exchange some words back & forth
Without knowing a single meaning
Begin, oh no I'm leaving
Razor sharp how I'm meant to be
Close the door change the frequency
People approve me with pre-conceived notions
Don't trust no soft handshake
My eyes ain't on the concrete

Okay my eyes ain't on the concrete
So why you looking down there?

Okay my eyes ain't on the concrete

So why you looking down there?
