

Know Me

BEXEY

I feel like I got déjà-vu right now man
If we ain't spoken all year you really don't know shit about me man

Saying that you love me
You don't even know me
You don't even know me
You don't even know me

Saying that you missing me
Oh that's the old me
Oh that's the old me
Oh that's the old me

Saying you been calling me
Oh that's my old phone
Oh that's my old phone
Oh that's my old phone

Say you miss the old days
I don't even know them
I'm so in my zone bitch
Can't fuck with my focus

You don't belong to me baby
So go roam free
We both alone but the difference is I'm not lonely
And I... destroy distractions
You... should know that
Moving forward, powerful force
You complainin so fall back...

Really wanted to show you the world
You'd rather be starting an argument
Bout some girls loving my style, out of my control...
B-d-a-bye-bye... see you in the next life
Nah I'm joking
You'd be moaning... that the heavens gate ain't silver but golden
You loco

Saying that you love me
You don't even know me
You don't even know me
You don't even know me

Saying that you missing me
Oh that's the old me
Oh that's the old me
Oh that's the old me

Saying you been calling me
Oh that's my old phone
Oh that's my old phone
Oh that's my old phone

Say you miss the old days
I'm so in my zone bitch

Can't fuck with my focus

Aye you my theme park
All day wristband where my sleeves hang
Ghost train, circles around your brain night & day
Laughing and shaking hands
With the suckas that live in there still
Failed that maths test but now I'm counting up in my world
When I stare up in your eyes
You might need speech therapy
When I get to talking you forget every language you speak
Then when I leave you searching for every piece that I took with me

(You) saying that you love me
(You) say that you missing me
(You) say you been calling me
That's the old days...
(You) saying that you love me
(You) say that you missing me
(You) say you been calling me
That's the old days...
