

It's a balance of the light and the darkness
A walking talking yin yang symbol
With crooked eyes brows and a cutthroat smile
Angel wings on my back and I still ain't flying
Let it sink in but don't drown

Watch how I flex...
Juxtaposition of the light and the darkness
Told her if they ever harm you I'll get them suckas murdered
Adjust the position of the Louis V harness...
Make em uncomfortable on purpose... laughing...
Hiding my paper just like a nerd that don't want copying...
Bitch keep ya eyes off me
Oh wow so off the rail like Black Friday
Out of jail free, roll the dice like monopoly
Ya mother think I'm handsome so fuck what ya father say
I got a circle of crows above me just hovering

Stay Cooler than Cucumbers fresh out the fridge onto eyelids
Meeting in the middles like tryna balance a lightswitch...
Send you off the edge like I'm the road runner
They wanna pull me down with em like stone cold stunners
I move oh so unapproachable cause I
Don't trust no sucka. Oh mumma...
Yo son a lil heartbreaker, soul taker, hoe killer... throat cut ta
Off of the roof like mankind I'ma show stopper

This ain't no... Maybach music...
This is that tricked out Ford Escort sound
Wow... don't know what you doing...
Like sleep paralysis I hold it hold it down

This ain't no... Maybach music...
This is that tricked out Ford Escort sound
Wow... don't know what you doing...
Like sleep paralysis I hold it hold it down

This ain't no... Maybach music...
This is that tricked out Ford Escort sound
Wow... don't know what you doing...
Like sleep paralysis I hold it hold it down
