

STOP THE RIDE

BEXEY

Some people being dabblin' around for years and then it catches them
As, and, and they could, maybe that be fooling themselves, maybe that not
But there's, there's a different ratio of a different people
I know people that when they come off heroin, they become alcoholics
When they go from alcoholics, they go on to a little super-dependency
I know people that use-

Waitin' for the perfect feelin' but it never comes
Stayin' awake for three days, shit was never fun
Infinite alcohol and endless drugs
Stop the ride, I ain't want to get old
One more time promise this my last
I said that last night and I'll say it tomorrow
One more line until it's all gone
I said that's an hour ago, let's get more

I'm back to my seat, I want to get rid off the ride
Didn't meet the high requirement to get turned into light
Anyway, not high enough, tried my luck
Eyes won't drop [?] frying some brain cells
Thank you, bitch, for that refusal repair
I'm lookin' around the room seachin' for the great escape
Nobody be moving and them curtains keep the outside world away
I hate the sound of birds chirping remind me of them days away
Nobody's spoken, now there's blood and powder on the plate
It's horrible when you're [?], it's terrible when you ain't He's been awake for several days, etchin' his name in heaven's gates
We went to school together, my mom knows his mom How we injectin' in his groin, he fucked the veins up in his ho use

Waitin' for the perfect feelin' but it never comes
Stayin' awake for three days, shit was never fun
Infinite alcohol and endless drugs
Stop the ride, I ain't want to get old
One more time promise this my last
I said that last night and I'll say it tomorrow
One more line until it's all gone
I said that an hour ago, let's get more
