BEXEY

Oh
I don't think you wanna taste this poison
You gonna live your life
I still protect you if you call me
I'll still protect you if you want me

So come and take a step inside my mind (from a minute overtime)
It's a dream with you fine (there is this visions of you)
Don't wanna lie
Wasn't you mine?
I don't wanna be cruel
I don't wanna fight
Something that I don't wanna hear, hear
Something that I don't wanna hear, hear

Oh Oh Oh
It's outside in our minds
But I can't get you out
And loneliness my only friend because he won't let me down
Who can I call mine?
Not even myself
Because me and him are arguing
He don't want me around

D-D-Daydreaming [?]
Darkest shades up on my face
Speaking to only myself

Reaching out to me for help
They say I am [?]
Therapy and counseling
Oh I'm not down in
I'm such a founded it

Baby I don't think you wanna taste this poison
You gonna life your life
I still protect you if you call me
I don't think you wanna taste this poison
You gonna life your life
I still protect you if you call me
I still protect you if you call
I don't wanna taste this poison

So come and take a step inside my mind (from a minute overtime)
It's a dream with you fine (there is this visions of you)
Don't wanna lie
Wasn't you mine?
I don't wanna be cruel
I don't wanna fight
Something that I don't wanna hear hear
Something that I don't wanna hear hear
