

My First Time

Beyoncé

All in all you been there for me; you showed me things I would never see

I think I'm ready

By my side you been waiting respectfully and oh-so patient

I think I'm ready

I feel it in my chest as I dance with you

You got so much control you haven't made a move

You give me reassurance in the things you do

And that's why

I think I'm ready

Baby, I'm not afraid

To go the way, but it's my first time

And, baby, I know you want to change the speed

And I'm-a let you take the lead, but it's my first time

And, baby, I'm not afraid

To go the way, but it's my first time

And, baby, I know you want to change the speed

And I'm-a let you take the lead; remember, it's my first time

On and on, eye to eye, as the music plays, emotions rise

I think I'm ready

In your eyes I see three words; hold me tight 'cause I'm about to burst

I think I'm ready

I feel it in my chest as I dance with you

You got so much control you haven't made a move

You give me reassurance in the things you do

And that's why

I think I'm ready

Baby, I'm not afraid

To go the way, but it's my first time

And, baby, I know you want to change the speed

And I'm-a let you take the lead, but it's my first time

To go the way, but it's my first time

And, baby, I know you want to change the speed

And I'm-a let you take the lead; remember, it's my first time

It felt like
