

Vengeance

Beyond Possession

Alive despite ridiculous odds
I've had a wretched life
My body's scarred I'm nearly blind
And I seek revenge for this grisly crime
Okay

Searching the world for this evil man
Who put me in this state?
My body seethes in frenzied rage
I can almost smell his bloody fate

One day I swear I'll have my revenge
I'll bring this monster to his end
Edging closer, manhunt, revenge
Living for my vengeance

Sitting alone in his house waiting
His presence fills the room
Flick the switch, the wash of light
Reveals his morbid doom

Screams of pain and suffering
Are lost out in the light
Laughing as he cries and begs
I carve away his f**ked up life

One day I swear I'll get my revenge
I'll bring this monster to his end
Edging closer, manhunt, revenge
Living for my vengeance
