

Burning In Flames

Beyond The Black

How am I to put out
What is stealing the life from me
And it isn't even trying

How am I to shut out
What I know is a guarantee
That one of us is dying

If I'm out of time - in too deep
I'm giving in to it, I'm

Burning up, burning down to the ground
An inferno untamed
Burning up, breaking free to be bound
Burning up in a flame

Burning up, burning down to the ground
An inferno untamed
Burning up, breaking free to be bound
Burning up in a flame

How am I to keep out
What's invited into my soul
Like a too familiar stranger

How am I to creep out
From the shadow of its control
When I enjoy the danger

If I'm out of time - in too deep
I'm giving in to it, I'm

Burning up, burning down to the ground
An inferno untamed
Burning up, breaking free to be bound
Burning up in a flame

Burning up, burning down to the ground
An inferno untamed
Burning up, breaking free to be bound
Burning up in a flame

If all that I am
Is ashes, I just
I don't give a damn
Leave me ashes and dust

If I'm out of time - in too deep
I'm giving in to it, I'm

Burning up, burning down to the ground
An inferno untamed
Burning up, breaking free to be bound
Burning up in a flame

Burning up, burning down to the ground
An inferno untamed

Burning up, breaking free to be bound
