

I Won't Surrender

Beyond The Black

The walls are moving in this room
And I can hear their voices from outside
There's shadows hanging on the moon
Haven't seen sunlight forever

And maybe I will slip and fall
I'm closer to the edge with every step
But I know underneath it all
There's a fighter inside of me

I won't surrender
No, nothing's gonna break me down
I won't surrender
Keep breathing even when I'm drown
And in the deepest dark I won't give up
I know there'll be a light at dawn
I won't surrender
I'll fight this final battle now
And I won't surrender

The bullets coming closer now
But I'll be holding out, it's in my blood
Yeah I won't run away, somehow
I will make it out of here

I'm praying to the open sky
"One day I'll be home again"

I won't surrender
No, nothing's gonna break me down
I won't surrender
Keep breathing even when I'm drown
And in the deepest dark I won't give up
I know there'll be a light at dawn
I won't surrender
I'll fight this final battle now
And I won't surrender
Surrender

I won't surrender
No, nothing's gonna break me down
I won't surrender
Keep breathing even when I'm drown
And in the deepest dark I won't give up
I know there'll be a light at dawn
I won't surrender
I'll fight this final battle now
And I won't surrender
Surrender
I won't surrender
