

Welcome To My Wasteland

Beyond The Black

Welcome

Welcome

A thousand voices behind my back, I can hear loud
I hear those words spoken in your mind, hiding in the crowd
I see you come from a thousand miles, burning all I know
Why won't you just leave me here, I watched your fire grow

Welcome to my wasteland
Welcome to my life
Welcome to this shattered world
Where hope is bound to die
Welcome to my wasteland
Welcome to my home
Welcome to the ashes
Where my anger rules alone

Welcome

Welcome

I see you burn what I called my life, smash it to the ground
With all that rage keeping you alive, trying to bring me down
And all I feel in my broken soul, tearing me apart
I just feel so empty now, within my wasted heart

Welcome to my wasteland
Welcome to my life
Welcome to this shattered world
Where hope is bound to die
Welcome to my wasteland
Welcome to my home
Welcome to the ashes
Where my anger rules alone

Welcome to my wasteland
Welcome to my life
Welcome to this shattered world
Where hope is bound to die
Welcome to my wasteland
Welcome to my home
Welcome to the ashes
Where my anger rules alone

Welcome

Welcome
