

Seductora

Beyond the Void

The night I met my doom

In mist revolve bright sigils and the circling suns
I see her flicker epiphany among no ones
Her print in mind slowly filling with my fleeting life
And as we brace for another round she's nowhere in sight

I'll never heal
I'm blessed with a beautiful wound
Ringing still in fatal blue
She's far away
In here, she is sun where I am moon
Pass me by, unreachable

She rules my nights
From afar, through the seas of infinite thorns
I'm lifting veils but all in vain
Already gone

Tormentor, seductress
I wouldn't mind to shoulder her every cross
If you consider me at all
Consider me lost

I'll never heal
I'm blessed with a beautiful wound
Ringing still in fatal blue
She's far away
In here, she is sun where I am moon
Pass me by, unreachable

We're dusk and down
We're never one
We are spiralling stars
Never to collide

I'll never heal
I'm blessed with a beautiful wound
Ringing still in fatal blue
She's far away
In here, she is sun where I am moon
Pass me by, unreachable
