Rage

Beyond Twilight

Rage
I cannot hold myself
Calm enough to think
Adrenaline keeps spewing in my intoxicated veins
Slaughtering the lambs
'til there's no blood left to drink
When we summon up the day
A wasteland full of brains

The sky alight
It thrills and excites

I'm so sick and tired
Of pain and destruction
Now I'm falling constantly
All spirit's gone
Only predator left
I'm crying endlessly

The sky alight
It thrills and excites

Trying to face my sanity
But I'm too afraid to confront with it
Reaching out
For what I do not know
There's no way to explain this hell I'm in
Can you? Can you?

No source of power to take from and wake from this nightmarish lunacy
Is there a meaning or is this just a test of destiny?
Creating these monsters for self purposed riches and glory in the end
Thousands of victims with fresh schizophrenia isn't out here to prete nd

Rage
I cannot hold myself
Calm enough to think
When we summon up the day
A wasteland full of brains

The sky alight
It thrills and excites
